

IGU became the first international member of AQAS

Istanbul Gelişim University (IGU) became the first and only international member together with 94 member organizations of AQAS in its 18th General Assembly Meeting. The Vice Rector Responsible for Quality and Accreditation Prof. Dr. Nail Öztaş who attended the meeting on behalf of IGU in Bonn, Germany expressed: "We are proud of being the first and only foreign member of such an elite community. While there was no any necessity, our university admitted to German, American and British accreditation agencies and set a record showing the success with accrediting 53 of its programs in Turkey".

One of Germany's leading accreditation organizations Agency for Quality Assurance through Accreditation of Study Programs (AQAS) held its 18th General Assembly in Bonn, Germany. Together with 94 member organizations IGU from Turkey attended to the Assembly.

"WE HAVE SET A RECORD IN TURKEY"

Representing IGU the Vice Rector Responsible for Quality and Accreditation Prof. Dr. Nail Öztaş providing information on accreditation processes, said:

"In this process, we learned and improved ourselves. Our programs, curriculum, procedures, and structure, which have been studied by 23 different international delegations with very distinguished members, have turned into accreditation assessments and have been improved as our name. We are now moving towards our goal of becoming a world university with faster and more stable steps. We are proud to be the first and only foreign member of such an elite community. As in other sectors, quality is a must in higher education. While there was no any necessity, our university admitted to German, American and British accreditation agencies and set a record showing the success of accrediting 53 of its programs in Turkey".

"IGU HAS A VOICE IN DECISION MAKING"

Doris Hermann, the General Manager of AQAS, expressing that IGU - a university from Turkey is their first international member, said: "In the decisions taken, IGU has a voice together with 94 member organizations in Germany. It is a success to be proud of".

NEW COOPERATIONS ARE ON

IGU - the first and only international member of AQAS has become the only university with its 53 accreditations and the university with the most accredited programs in Turkey. There was also stated that IGU, which has attracted great attention from the top executives of German universities, is in new cooperations.

Nutritionists met with students

“True Talks About Nutrition’18” event was organized by Biotechnology and Life Sciences Club of Istanbul Gelisim University, Department of Health, Culture and Sports. Students and academic staff showed great interest in the event where Nutrition Specialist DT. Didem Kanca Üstay, Dr. Alp Sirman and DT. Chef Elif Edes Tapan attended as speakers.

In the event Nutrition Specialist DT. Didem Kanca Üstay who has participated in numerous international congresses and trainings and has visited several nutritional centers around the World since 2003 presented on “The Effect of Media on Nutritional Habits” and Dr. Alp Sirman informed the participants with a speech on the 'Food Additives, Commercial and School Nutrition'.

Events where the students have the opportunity to listen to the subjects of interest ended with a speech of DT Chef Elif Edes Tapan emphasizing the importance of dietitian and chef cooperation.

At the end of event, participants were presented with a plaque on behalf of the university.

Chef Tuncay Çetin talked about French cuisine

Istanbul Gelisim University SAS Gastronomy Department conducted kitchen training together with Hyatt Regency World Cuisine Food Supervisor and Instructor Exec. Chef Tuncay Çetin.

In the training organized by Lect. Tolgahan Tabak, Chef Tuncay Çetin showed the production and subtleties of French-style basic sauces to gastronomy students. Stating that French cuisine is holding one of the top places in the world, it affects the other world cuisines and that is affected by them, Çetin emphasized that it is very important to teach these techniques in the basic culinary practice course to young gastronomy students in an early stage of education.

Asst. Prof. İsmail Hakkı Tekiner and Lect. Tolgahan Tabak stated that as the Department of Gastronomy of School of Applied Sciences, their aim is to educate graduates who have the basic knowledge and practical experiences in their field and who will be able to successfully represent their country abroad in the future.

Students were informed about nutritions improving cognitive power

Istanbul Gelisim University School of Applied Sciences Department of Gastronomy students met with Pınar Cava Gümüş - Director of Vital Product Group which is a Turkish Business Unit of Euro OTC Pharma Company originating in Germany.

In the seminar organized by Asst. Prof. Ismail Hakkı Tekiner and Lect. Tolgahan Tabak, Gümüş gave information about the nutritional elements and supplements that increase cognitive strength and stated that she was admiring the interest of the students in the department. Gümüş also expressed her pleasure on IGU students' using use these nutrients in their kitchens

Asst. Prof. Ismail Hakkı Tekiner stating that Gastronomy is a branch of science and the examination of different perspectives will improve students' vision, presented a plaque of appreciation on behalf of the university for her contributions, to the EurRho Vital Product Manager Pınar Cava Gümüş at the end of the seminar.

IGU students transformed their love with Atatürk into an exhibition

Mustafa Kemal Atatürk was commemorated with the photographs within the scope of "Commemoration of Atatürk" photo exhibition organized by Ataturkist Thought Club under Directorate of Health, Culture and Sports at Istanbul Gelisim University.

The students, who showed great interest in the exhibition, came together with the rare photographs of Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, which they had never had a chance to see before. The exhibition, which is planned to be opened in all faculties and schools of Istanbul Gelisim University, is aimed to reach all students of the university.

Stating that Atatürk should be remembered not only on special occasions but also every day, Sıla Tıraş, chairman of the IGU Ataturkist Thought Club, said: "We wanted to show our love, respect and longing for Atatürk in the scope of the exhibition. Those who come to the exhibition have a chance to see some slices of Atatürk's life. We expect everyone to visit this precious exhibition".