

IGU chose its representative

Istanbul Gelişim University, with the participation of all its academic and administrative staff, made the election of Occupational Health and Safety Employee Representative.

In the election, where 8 personnel were candidates and 1124 employees vote, Özgecan Kubilay, Lect. Fırat Demirkol, Lect. Mertcan Karacan, Asst. Prof. Gülşah Kınalı and Bilal Luş were elected as representatives.

“Pirge came together with gastronomy students”

"Pirge" company that performs 85% of all knives and cutting tools export of Turkey was hosted in the Gelişim Tower conference hall at the new campus of Istanbul Gelişim University.

At the event organized by Lect. İbrahim Levent Demirçakmak, General Manager of Pirge Tankut Paçacı and Chief Sadık Doğan gave a two-hour seminar for the students of SAS Gastronomy, FFA Gastronomy, Culinary Arts and Vocational School Cookery Programs about knives, design principles and usage areas.

At the end of the seminar, Head of Department of Gastronomy at SAS Asst. Prof. İsmail Hakkı Tekiner and Lect. İbrahim Levent Demirçakmak presented a plaque of appreciation to the guests for their support to the training.

IGU students had their fill of music

Istanbul Gelişim University students met with music under “Welcome to Gelişim Concerts” organized by Music Club of Health, Culture and Sports Department, within the scope of the new academic year, spent a week full of fun.

The concerts that took place on different campuses enabled the students to socialize and get to know the university.

Stating that they want to contribute to the socialization of university students together with the concerts, Albin Hasani - the vice chairman of IGU Music Club said: “We were on the stage as two groups within the scope of the ‘Welcome to Gelişim Concerts’ and tried to bring together more than one style of music. It was a high-performing concert that was very crowded for us. We expect all students to our club.”

Indicating that they support such activities in order students to let off steam and study more motivated way Chairman of the IGU Board of Trustees Abdulkadir Gayretli added: “We want young people to socialize and adapt to our school more quickly”.

Gastronomy students achieved another success

The students of Istanbul Gelişim University SAS Gastronomy Department achieved another success. Aslıhan Mete, a senior student, was promoted to Demi Chef position at the Radisson Blu Şişli of Radisson Hotels Group where she had started her business life 7 months before.

Radisson Blu Hotel Şişli is a highly preferred accommodation center due to its location in the city center. Expressing their happiness in the success story of their student Aslıhan Mete at the Radisson Blue Hotel Şişli where two different styles of cuisine services is provided from Steak’n More international cuisine to Hamdi Restaurant traditional Turkish cuisine, Asst. Prof. İsmail Hakkı Tekiner stated that their aim and objectives are to internationalize and carry Turkish cuisine to the place they deserve in the world.

Tekiner emphasized that Lect. Tolgahan Tabak made an important contribution to the successful student Aslıhan Mete’s career planning and all the students were very valuable to them.