12. Transfer students: In case students request to be exempt from the courses which they have taken in their previous universities, they apply for our university for exemption. The documents submitted by the students shall be verified by their previous universities. Whether the previous university is recognized by Higher Education Council of Turkey (YÖK) shall be questioned. If the required verifications are not taken, the exempted courses shall be cancelled. *(This article applies only to transfer student).

13. English and Turkish proficiency exam and exemption procedures;

- Exemption from English preparatory class: Students are required to get min. 70 out of 100 from English Proficiency Exam or present a valid language certificate, for example, min. 60 score from Foreign Language Exam (YDS) or min. 72 score from TOEFL IBT. Students who have completed their last three years of education at the secondary education institutions providing education in the English language and locating a country where English is spoken as a mother tongue can be exempt from English preparatory class. You can send your petition and relevant certificates to ydyo@gelisim.edu.tr for exemption and get detailed information.

- Exemption from Turkish preparatory class: Students are required to have a Turkish High Diploma or TÖMER B1 or C1 level certificate. Students who have a B1 level certificate can take department courses, provided that they attend a Turkish course. These students must certify that they have increased the Turkish proficiency level (C1-C2) up to the beginning of the third academic year at the latest. Otherwise, they cannot continue their education and training in the program until they have increased their Turkish proficiency level (C1-C2). You can send your petition and relevant certificates to igutomer@gelisim.edu.tr for exemption and get detailed information.

1 If your diploma grade does not meet the criteria determined by our university, you must take YÖS exam (Examination for Foreign or Overseas Students)

YÖS exam does not prevent you from registering.

2 Those who graduated from a high school in any country except for Turkey or an International school in Turkey must get an equivalency certificate. Students can get the equivalency certificate from the Turkish Ministry of Education in Turkey or the Education Attaché at the Turkish Embassy in your country. When you apply for the equivalency certificate, you must have the acceptance letter from our university, the original diploma and transcript with you. *(In order to avoid problems in the equivalency process, the approvals obtained by consulate/embassy/foreign ministry/ministry of national education etc. in your diploma must be complete and you must also have your transcript of the previous years with you along with the last year's transcript.) You can get an online appointment from Turkish Ministry of Education.
