Innovative Lessons

Gelisim is both a target and a goal. Gelisim is a Huma Bird. It is not the strength of its wings, but the Huma bird's ability to fly non-stop that makes it soar to the highest altitudes. Istanbul Gelisim Vocational School was founded in 2008 with the goal of pushing the limits every day, creating something better for its students and the institution than the day before. In 2011, the institution made a significant transformation and became Istanbul Gelisim University.
