

THE SUCCESS OF IGU, WHICH ATTACHES GREAT SIGNIFICANCE TO SUSTAINABILITY STUDIES, WAS CROWNED WITH "30 MARCH WORLD ZERO WASTE DAY"

Mustafa Lütfü Bahar, Branch Manager Responsible for the Zero Waste Project of the Ministry of Environment, Urbanization and Climate Change, Environmental Engineer Sevcan Altın and Aquatic Sciences Engineer Gamze Temel Yıkılmaz visited IGU Rector Prof. Dr. Bahri Şahin in his office.

Istanbul Gelisim University, which attaches importance to sustainability studies in every field, especially environmental sustainability, was entitled to receive the Basic Level Waste Certificate within the scope of its meticulous work. On March 30, World Zero Waste Day, Istanbul Gelisim University stood out with its sustainability efforts.

Mustafa Lütfü Bahar, Branch Manager Responsible for the Zero Waste Project of the Ministry of Environment, Urbanization and Climate Change, Environmental Engineer Sevcan Altın and Aquatic Sciences Engineer Gamze Temel Yıkılmaz, personally presented the Basic Level Zero Waste Certificate to IGU Rector Prof. Dr. Bahri Şahin. Vice Rector Prof. Dr. Arda Öztürkcan, Deputy Secretary General Asst. Prof. Dr. Sayın and Quality Coordinator Hasan Hakan Bozkurt participated in the protocol.

IGU EARNED TWO NEW DEGREES FROM TUBITAK THANKS TO THE RESEARCH PROJECTS IT SUPPORTED

Istanbul Gelisim University (IGU) continues to progress rapidly with its vision of "Research University". IGU students gained two new degrees with their applications to TUBITAK.

Within the scope of 2209-A University Students Research Projects Support Program 2023/2 term, carried out by TUBITAK Scientist Support Programs Directorate, Istanbul Gelisim University, which was ranked 5th in the number of applications from foundation universities in Turkey, was ranked 8th in the project application acceptance results ranking among foundation universities.